Mobile business solutions for digital transformation

At CeBIT 2016, ISEC7 Group shows how mobilising data and processes increases efficiency.

Hamburg, March 1, 2016 – At this year’s CeBIT, the enterprise mobility expert ISEC7 Group (ISEC7) will present its successful solutions for mobilising business processes. ISEC7 holds the right mobile solution for every client’s need: connecting SAP data to Android, Apple, BlackBerry and Windows 10 devices; allowing mobilisation of third party’s additional emails, appointments and contacts through representative rights on iOS, Android and BlackBerry devices; private hosting of the whole mobility infrastructure in the ISEC7 Mobility Cloud which is built according to the German data protection laws. As a full service provider for enterprise mobility management, ISEC7 also offers all required services for integrating, optimising and expanding mobile business solutions within the respective network infrastructure.

Marco Gocht, CEO ISEC7, explains: „The high quality of our services and solutions reflects our long-lasting experience and specialisation in Enterprise Mobility we have had since 2003. The focus lies on an integral understanding of Enterprise Mobility Management. In this way, we help companies to mobilise both their data and their employees, and consequently increase effectiveness of processes, as well as ensure Enterprise Mobility becomes a positive experience for its users and IT departments alike.“

From March 14 until 18, 2016, visitors are invited to discuss with ISEC7 experts at stand A24 Hall 4. Here, the company will present its solutions as the partner of MobileIron, a leading provider in the area of security and management of mobile apps, content and devices. To arrange an appointment with the ISEC7 management, please send an email until March 7, 2016 to: info@ISEC7.com.
